Volunteering within NANC

NANC is completely run by member volunteers. Each and every person that volunteers her or his time, energy and talents plays an important role in our success. If you're interested in working with NANC, please let us know. You can make a real difference!

I'm interested in...

developing / implementing the nanny credential writing for the newsletter, blog, educational publications, etc.

publicity, special events

training, conferences

building membership

fundraising

other (please list) _____.

I'm available to work on an ongoing committee.

I'm available for short term tasks.

I'm available for one time tasks.

I'd be interested in providing NANC gift memberships to the nannies I place / work with at a reduced rate of only $10 per nanny.

Business Promoting Education Membership Information

Business Promoting Education Member Commitment

- The member business agrees to organize, promote, and present one educational course during its membership year.
- The specific topic of the course is at the discretion of the business. However, the topic must be educational in nature.
- The course must be open to all local in-home childcare providers. No provider can be excluded due to agency affiliation, age, sex, or ethnicity.
- The member business must make a substantive effort to include all in-home childcare providers in the area, not just those associated with the business.
- The course must be offered free of charge.
- Businesses may work together to offer required courses, providing one course is offered for each participating business (i.e. two placement agencies and a tax service work together to provide a day of professional development for nannies, offering a course on tax issues, Shaken Baby Syndrome, and positive discipline).
- The member business must submit an event summary within 30 calendar days of the event.

Business Promoting Education Members will receive...

- A Business Promoting Education member banner included in your NANC website listing.
- An event listing in our quarterly e-newsletter.
- An event listing on our online educational calendar.
- A support package including a sample press release, tips on locating speakers, securing meeting space, and effectively promoting your event.
